INTRODUCTION

 This lawsuit concerns San Diego Municipal Code § 56.27, a vague, overbroad, and anachronistic law that criminally penalizes protected speech in the City of San Diego, in violation of the First and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.
 It seeks declaratory and injunctive relief to protect the First Amendment and Due Process rights of individuals within the City of San Diego.

3. It also seeks to recover damages relating to the defense of a criminal charge, trial, conviction, and appeal stemming from this unconstitutional ordinance.

THE PARTIES

4. Plaintiff William J. Dorsett is a resident of the City of San Diego.
5. Mr. Dorsett brings this challenge to San Diego Municipal Code § 56.27 both on his own behalf (having been charged and convicted of a violation of this section and having his own speech now chilled as a result), but also because he believes the ordinance chills the speech of others within the City of San Diego and is selectively enforced.

RELEVANT STATUTORY PROVISION & HISTORY

12. San Diego Municipal Code § 56.27 states:

Disorderly or Offensive Conduct in Public Places — Prohibited

That is [sic] shall be and is hereby declared to be unlawful for any person to be guilty of any offensive or disorderly conduct in or upon any of the streets, alleys, sidewalks, squares, parks, or in any store, or other public place in said City, and it shall be unlawful for any person to make any loud noise, or disturbance, or use any loud, noisy, boisterous, vulgar, or indecent language on any of the streets, alleys, sidewalks, square, park, or in any store or other public place in said City.<sup>2</sup>

13. The first iteration of this ordinance was passed in 1895 and was 1 2 included with an ordinance prohibiting "drunkenness."<sup>3</sup> 3 Despite significant developments in First Amendment 14. 4 jurisprudence over the last 100 years, the language of the 5 6 ordinance has remained substantially unchanged since 1903. 7 The only substantive difference between the current version of the 15.8 ordinance and that passed in 1903 is the removal of the word 9 10 "saloon" from the described locales where such speech is 11 prohibited:4 12 13 14 <sup>3</sup> See City of San Diego, Ordinance Books, "Ordinance Book 3 15 September 10, 1889 – April 9, 1897," available at https://www.sandiego.gov/sites/default/files/legacv/digitalarchives/pdf/h 16 istoricalocd/ordinances/ordinancebook3.pdf. 17 <sup>4</sup> There appears to be a scrivener's error in the current version of the 18 ordinance (i.e., it should read "That it shall be" and not "That is shall 19 be"). This error appears in the current version of the code but not in the versions passed in 1903, 1934, or 1952. See City of San Diego, 20 Ordinance Books, "Ordinance Book 6 June 16, 1902 – September 21, 21 1903," available at https://www.sandiego.gov/sites/default/files/legacy/digitalarchives/pdf/h 22 istoricalocd/ordinances/ordinancebook6.pdf; City of San Diego, 23 Ordinance Books, "Ordinance Book 45 October 9, 1934 – September 22, 1936," available at 24 https://www.sandiego.gov/sites/default/files/legacy/digitalarchives/pdf/h 25 istoricalocd/ordinances/ordinancebook45.pdf; City of San Diego, Ordinance Books, "Ordinance New Series 5041-5050", available at 26 27 COMPLAINT - 9

24. On June 25, 2023, Mr. Dorsett went to Balboa Park<sup>9</sup> as "a busker<sup>10</sup> and an artist" but also because other buskers and artists told him that "park rangers had been violating rights" so he went "there to witness and observe to see if this was true or not." <sup>11</sup>

496, 515 (1939) ("Wherever the title of streets and parks may rest, they have immemorially been held in trust for the use of the public and, time out of mind, have been used for purposes of assembly, communicating thoughts between citizens, and discussing public questions. Such use of the streets and public places has, from ancient times, been a part of the privileges, immunities, rights, and liberties of citizens.").

But in the last several months (since the time Mr. Dorsett was cited), the same agency which oversees the Park Rangers—the City of San Diego Parks and Recreation Department—continues to showcase imagery of an individual doing "bubble shows" for children with no protective equipment and—one would imagine since it is being used in their own promotional materials<sup>17</sup>—not creating a violation of the City's public health and safety laws:

Upon hearing the word "bullies,"<sup>21</sup> Ranger Othniel turned to 38. 1 2 Mr. Dorsett, pointed at him, and informed him: "you're being cited 3 for 56.27 disorderly conduct . . . you're being detained right now."<sup>22</sup> 4 At no point during the encounter did Mr. Dorsett use fighting 39. 5 6 words or try to incite others to violence. 7 CONVICTION AT TRIAL FOR "TAUNT[ING]" AND 8 "ANNOY[ING]" LAW ENFORCEMENT 9 Mr. Dorsett took his infraction case to trial on September 7, 2023. 40. 10 He argued to the trial court that his conduct and speech were 41. 11 12 constitutionally-protected First Amendment activities.<sup>23</sup> 13 42.In a bench trial, the court focused on whether Mr. Dorsett had 14 created a "disturbance" under § 56.27.24 15 16 17 <sup>21</sup> In City of Houston, Texas v. Hill, the U.S. Supreme Court noted that it has "repeatedly invalidated laws that provide the police with 18 unfettered discretion to arrest individuals for words or conduct that 19 annoy or offend them." 482 U.S. 451, 465 (1987). Like the Houston municipal ordinance at issue in Hill, § 56.27 "criminalizes a 20 substantial amount of constitutionally protected speech, and accords 21 the police unconstitutional discretion in enforcement." Id. at 466. 22 <sup>22</sup> Video recording of encounter at approx. 8:28, available at 23 https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P3aX7YMjTYs&t=484s. 24 <sup>23</sup> Exhibit A - 33. 25 <sup>24</sup> Exhibit A - 36. 26 27 COMPLAINT - 18 28

43. Since this was an infraction trial, Mr. Dorsett was not entitled to trial by jury.

44. Nor was Mr. Dorsett entitled to appointed counsel.

- 45. The absence of appointed counsel in infraction matters has likely aided this unconstitutional ordinance from evading judicial review for so long. There do not appear to be any previous cases in the 100+ years history of this municipal ordinance interpreting the constitutionality of § 56.27.
- 46. The court looked to the California Penal Code and jury instructions for violations of Cal. Penal Code § 415<sup>25</sup> ("Fighting; noise; offensive words") in an attempt to seek to understand the meaning of "disturbance."<sup>26</sup>
- <sup>19</sup>
   <sup>25</sup>California Penal Code § 415 provides: "Any of the following persons shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than 90 days, a fine of not more than four hundred dollars ($400), or both such imprisonment and fine: (1) Any person who unlawfully fights in a public place or challenges another person in a public place to fight. (2) Any person who maliciously and willfully disturbs another person by loud and unreasonable noise. (3) Any person who uses offensive words in a public place which are inherently likely to provoke an immediate violent reaction."

COMPLAINT - 19

Both the Code and the jury instructions addressed conduct that 47. 1 2 the court found "really do not apply in this case."<sup>27</sup> 3 The court then consulted Black's Law Dictionary for additional 48. 4 guidance on whether the speech here could be said to have created 5 6 a "disturbance."28 7 Here, the court found an expansive definition of "disturbance" that 49. 8 included "any act causing annoyance, disquiet, agitation, or 9 10 derangement to another or interrupting his peace or interfering 11 with him in the pursuit of a lawful and an appropriate occupation 12 or contrary to the usages of a sort of meeting and class of persons 13 14 assembled that interferes with its due progress or irritates the 15 assembly in whole or in part."29 16 50. Under the Black's Law definition of "disturbance," the court 17 18 proceeded to find Mr. Dorsett guilty of "interfer[ing] with or 19 disturb[ing], taunt[ing], and annoy[ing]" the park ranger.<sup>30</sup> 20 21 <sup>27</sup> Exhibit A - 36. 22 23 <sup>28</sup> Exhibit A – 38. 24 <sup>29</sup> Exhibit A – 38-39. 25 <sup>30</sup> Exhibit A – 39. 26 27 COMPLAINT - 20

Case 3:24-cv-01172-BTM-SBC Document 1 Filed 07/08/24 PageID.21 Page 21 of 38

51.The court ordered Mr. Dorsett to pay a fine.<sup>31</sup>

Mr. Dorsett paid his fine in full through monthly installments. 52.

CONVICTION REVERSED ON APPEAL AS VIOLATIVE OF THE FIRST AMENDMENT ... BUT OVERBROAD AND VAGUE ORDINANCE STILL STANDS

53. Mr. Dorsett timely appealed his conviction asserting that—facially and as-applied—§ 56.27 is unconstitutional.

After Mr. Dorsett filed his opening brief, the City of San Diego 54.

conceded the as-applied challenge: Mr. Dorsett should never have been cited nor convicted of a violation of § 56.27 because the First Amendment protected his speech and conduct that day.<sup>32</sup>

The City did not concede that the ordinance was facially invalid. 55.

Oral argument was held on March 27, 2024. 56.

19 <sup>31</sup> In addition to the expense of paying for a lawyer and paying his fine in the criminal matter, Mr. Dorsett spent a substantial amount of time 20 researching his rights. He missed opportunities to work because of this and because of his need to attend court proceedings related to this matter, resulting in lost income. Mr. Dorsett experienced significant 22 stress and anxiety because of this citation, trial, conviction, fine, and 23 appeal.

60. But, the majority opinion did not address the facial constitutionality of § 56.27, instead leaving it as an enforceable law in the City of San Diego.

61. In a concurring opinion, Judge Birchak found § 56.27 to be "very broad—arguably significantly broader than in City of Houston."<sup>36</sup>
62. The concurrence also noted that § 56.27 "is not narrowly tailored to prohibit only disorderly conduct or fighting words" and thus it "criminalizes a substantial amount of protected speech."<sup>37</sup>

63. Judge Birchak also argued that because any "potentially unprotected speech and conduct" prohibited by § 56.27 is already prohibited in existing California penal code provisions (Cal. Penal Code §§ 415 and 647<sup>38</sup>), the ordinance is also preempted.<sup>39</sup>

FIRST CLAIM – Violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (Unconstitutional Statute Under First and Fourteenth Amendments)

73. Mr. Dorsett hereby alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 72 above, inclusive.

74. Defendant's Municipal Code § 56.27 is a viewpoint-based restriction on speech which is presumptively unconstitutional.<sup>44</sup>

75. Section 56.27 is also an overbroad restriction on speech and expression rendering it unconstitutional.

<sup>44</sup> Section 56.27 prohibits speech that is "vulgar" or "indecent." This type of governmental regulation is presumptively impermissible. See Iancu v. Brunetti, 588 U.S. 388, 393 (2019) ("The government may not discriminate against speech based on the ideas or opinions it conveys. See Rosenberger v. Rector and Visitors of Univ. of Va., 515 U.S. 819, 829–830, 115 S.Ct. 2510, 132 L.Ed.2d 700 (1995) (explaining that viewpoint discrimination is an 'egregious form of content discrimination' and is 'presumptively unconstitutional').").

FOURTH CLAIM – Violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983 (First and Fourteenth Amendments – Selective Enforcement)

Mr. Dorsett hereby alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 72 above, inclusive.

99. Section 56.27 (which outlaws "offensive," "loud," "noisy," and "vulgar" speech) is undoubtably violated hundreds of times a day within the public spaces in the City of San Diego.<sup>55</sup>

100. Mr. Dorsett—as a busker/artist and First Amendment activist was targeted for a violation of § 56.27 because of the exercise of a protected constitutional right, that is: criticism of law enforcement in a public forum.

<sup>55</sup> Any San Diego playground is likely to (rightfully and joyfully) have "noisy" activity and any city baseball field in use by a Little League team is likely to have "loud" parental fans enthusiastically cheering on their teams.

- 111. Mr. Dorsett hereby alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation contained in paragraphs 1 through 72 above, inclusive.
- 112. The acts of Ranger Othniel deprived Mr. Dorsett of his particular rights under the U.S. Constitution.
- 113. Ranger Othniel acted under color of law.
- 114. The Defendant City of San Diego was deliberately indifferent to the substantial risk that its policies were inadequate to prevent violations of law by its employees.
- 115. The failure of the Defendant City of San Diego to prevent violations of law by its employees caused the deprivation of Mr. Dorsett's rights by Ranger Othniel; that is, the Defendant City of San Diego's failure to prevent violations of law by its employees played a substantial part in bringing about or actually causing the injury or damage to Mr. Dorsett.
  - 116. Defendant "can be sued directly under § 1983 for monetary, declaratory, or injunctive relief where . . . the action that is alleged

117. Mr. Dorsett suffered damages directly resulting from his citation and conviction under this unconstitutional statute in an amount to be proven at trial.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

118. Mr. Dorsett hereby demands a jury trial for all applicable causes of action.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Mr. Dorsett prays that the Court enter judgment in his favor and against the Defendant, and grant the following relief:
119. Declare San Diego Municipal Code § 56.27 an unconstitutional viewpoint-based restriction on speech and unconstitutionally overbroad under the First and Fourteenth Amendments;
120. Declare San Diego Municipal Code § 56.27 unconstitutionally
vague under the Fourteenth Amendment;
